

RAPID RESPONSE PULSE SURVEY

2016

Presented by:
 Work Institute

In uncertain times make one thing certain to your employees - that they matter.

This valuable report will show you exactly where to allocate your budget for 2017 – by asking your employees what needs to improve.

In an election year employees are distracted, disengaged and financially fearful. Take their pulse now to find out what you need to do in 2017 to keep them on board and productive.

The information in this report is built from three pulse research questions that will be asked of your employees. Each question is designed to provide critical feedback data on retention issues.

Easy to implement. Feedback you need. Fast, actionable data in 2 simple steps:

- 1 Send a secure file of the employee population you wish to target.
- 2 Work Institute provides the full Pulse report in just 1-2 weeks!

Employee turnover costs U.S. companies billions of dollars. Get the critical feedback you need to address organizational challenges and retain top talent.

Gain important insight into the issues that drive retention:

- If your employees feel supported
- If they feel connected to the mission of the organization
- How long employees intend to stay
- How employees feel about their supervisors
- How they rate YOU as an employer
